

The Central Philosophy of Jainism (Folder No. 1129)

Main Title
Foreword
Preface
Contents
I. Introduction	1
II. Vibhajya-vada as a philosophic method	7
III. The Middle-Way and the "Non-onesided" way	12
IV. Anekanta : A development from the Vibhajya method	19
V. Different senses of Anekanta	24
VI. Anekanta as a resolution of the paradox of Causality	26
VII. The Jaina naya and the Madhyamika dialectic	30
VIII. Substance and quality : Two main standpoints	32
IX. Existence and Substance	35
X. The Seven standpoints	41
XI. Historical background of the Jaina dialectic	47
XII. The meaning of SYAT	52
XIII. Explanation of the seven predicates	54
XIV. Traditional Objections	57
XV. In defence of the Jaina position	59
Footnotes	62
Appendix	66
Bibliographical References	70