

The Jaina Philosophy of Non Absolutism (Folder No. 001213)

Main Title
Foreword	7
Preface	9
Contents	15
Chapter-1 – The Logical Background of Jaina Philosophy	1-22
Sources of Knowledge	1-2
Functions of experience and reflection	3
Origin and Status of the Laws of Thought...	4-19
Difference of philosophers and their progress...	20-21
Original contributions of Jaina Philosophy	21-22
Chapter-2 Non-Absolutism	23-48
An absolute real can neither be a cause nor an effect	23-27
The Jaina solves the difficulty...	27-29
Things cannot be held to be existent in an absolute sense...	29-35
The Jaina position of non-absolutism	35-37
Sankhya theory of causation and its criticism by the Jaina	37
The problem of the eternal existence of word...	38
The formidable array of arguments of the Carvaka...	38-43
The Jaina reply	43-46
The problem of post-nonexistence	46-48
Chapter-3 – Numerical Difference and Absolute Non-Existence	49-72
Meaning of numerical difference and absolute non-existence...	49-51
The Vedantists and the Sunyavadin's denial of relation	52-55
Jaina reply	54-60
Sceptic's rejoinder and the Jaina reply...	60-61
The discovery of anekantavada as a solution...	62
The central thesis of the Jaina and the nature of reality...	64-72
Chapter-IV Absolute Negativism and Absolute Particularism	73-96
Fluxist on the objectivity of non-existence...	73-74
Voidist's position and the Jaina reply	75-80
Jaina conception of the nature of reality...	80-82
Prefixing of Syat to propositions...	83
Fluxist's interpretation of inexpressible...	83-86
Buddhist epistemology of perceptual knowledge...	86-96
Chapter-V The Inexpressible or the Indefinite	97-116
Buddhist position and the Jaina solution recalled	97
The Mimamsist view of reality...	98-100
Significance of Syat	100-101
Bharathari's plea that the whole order of reality...	101-114
Sceptic's condemnation of all knowledge as false...	114-115
Chapter-VI Dialectic of Sevenfold Predication	117-176
Sec.-1
The question why should the number of...	117-120
Vedanti's denial of the second proposition...	120
Logical and ontological considerations...	121-122
Unguarded predication...	122
Why further combinations not possible	123-125
The import of the seven propositions	126-133
Sec-2
Import of each term of the propositions	133-136

The negative proposition is as much true as the affirmative one	137-142
The determinate nature of existence and non-existence... ..	142-148
The problem of the relation of subject and predicate... ..	148-150
Sec-3
Survey of the remaining five propositions.....	150-151
Each proposition constitutes an estimation of reality... ..	151-153
The theory of sevenfold predication... ..	153-159
Consideration of the objection advanced against the theory... ..	159-165
The question which of the two – realism and idealism... ..	165
The Jaina position in logic and the realistic philosophers.....	165-166
The contention of the Naiyayika who believes... ..	166-170
The Position of Prabhakara and the Jaina solution.....	170-172
Jaina's dismissal of the fundamental... ..	173
The Jaina non-absolutism and its critics	174
The Sankhya doctrine of identity of substance... ..	174-176
Chapter-VII Relations	177-211
Identity and difference... ..	177-178
Denial of relation... ..	178-181
Reciprocity of services... ..	181-191
Jaina conception of relation	191-195
The difficulty about the cognition of relation... ..	194-198
The Problem of inherence... ..	198-206
The jaina position	206-211
Chapter-VIII The Nyaya Conception of Universals	212-265
Meaning of relatedness... ..	212-213
Buddhist contention that the meaning of terms... ..	213-241
A retrospective survey of the Buddhist... ..	241-253
The Buddhist arguments put forward... ..	241-253
The Buddhist theory which makes the particular... ..	253-256
Examination of the objections advanced by the Buddhist... ..	257-260
A difficulty raised by the non-absolutist... ..	261-262
The objection of Dharmakirti and the Naiyayika's answer	262-264
The problems whether our sense organs are competent... ..	264-265
Chapter-IX The jaina Conception of Universals	266-286
Sec.-I
Jaina conception of universals... ..	266
The position adopted by Samantabhadra.....	266-272
Sec-II
Buddhist influence and the reinterpretation of universal... ..	272-274
Criticism of the same	275-289
Index.....	287-289