

Secondary Tales of The Two Great Epics (Folder No. : 001566)

| | |
|--|-------|
| Main Title | |
| Foreword | |
| Preface | |
| Contents | |
| I – Introductory ----- | 1-27 |
| The Epics and Folk Literature----- | 1 |
| The Epics as Folk Literature----- | 7 |
| The Epics and Other Folk-tale-collections ----- | 11 |
| Form, Content and Function : Their Inter-relation----- | 13 |
| Implications of Secondary----- | 15 |
| II – The Tales In Ramayana ----- | 28-88 |
| A. Bala Kanda – Puranic Style, Contradictions----- | 28 |
| 1) The First Four Stages----- | 29 |
| 2) The Rsyasrnga Episode----- | 34 |
| 3) The Entourage Tales----- | 48 |
| 4) The Visvamitra Story Cycle ----- | 61 |
| 5) The Parasurama Episode----- | 67 |
| B. Uttara-Kanda----- | 71 |
| 1) The Ravana-Katha-Cakra ----- | 71 |
| 2) The Other Tales ----- | 80 |
| III. The Tales In Mahabharata----- | 89 |
| 1) The Sarpasatra of Janamejaya ----- | 89 |
| 2) Tales of the Heroes ----- | 108 |
| 3) The Birth Stories ----- | 118 |
| 4) The Tales of Sabhaparvan ----- | 150 |
| IV. Conclusion----- | 162 |
| 1) General recapitulation of various patterns and deductions ----- | 162 |
| 2) Within epics tales grouped functionally... ----- | 167 |
| 3) Comparing the epics.... ----- | 168 |
| 4) Suggestions for further studies ----- | 170 |