

Jainism in A Global Perspectie (Folder No. : 001661)

Main Title
Publisher's Note
Contents
Foreword -----	i-xiii
Jainism as a Religion of Non-Violence (Ahimsa Dharma) -----	1-3
Jaina Meditation -----	4-6
The Jaina Approach to Self-Relization-----	7-17
Prayer and its Power -----	18-25
Ahimsa Dharma (The Religion of Non-Violence)-----	26-33
The Practice of Non-Violence in Multicultural Prespective -----	34-42
Western Perceptions of Jainism : Misconception, Achievements and current Expectations -----	43-59
Practice of Compassion in Modern Life -----	60-68
A Coalition of the World Religions for Ecology, Distress-relief and Peace -----	69-75
A Multi-Cultural Vision of the 21 st Century -----	76-85
Jaina Religion – Universal Relevance in the Contemporary World -----	86-99
Spiritual Resurgence – The Crying need of our Times -----	100-112
Jainism as a World Religion -----	113-119
Religious Harmony and Fellowship of Faiths : A Jaina Perspective -----	120-141
The Solution of World Problems from Jaina Perspective -----	142-153
Jaina Ceoncept of Peace -----	154-171
The Concept of Non-Violence in Jainism -----	172-183
Role of Women in Jaina Religion -----	184-191
Jainism : The Oldest Religion -----	192-201
Jainism and World Peace -----	202-217
Concept of God in Jainism-----	218-229
Legacy of Virchand Gandhi and Jaina Philosophy -----	230-233
Jaina Agamic Literature -----	234-274
Jainism and Freedom of Mankind-----	275-280
Anuvrata-The Jaina Path to Self-Transformation and World Peace -----	281-292
Evolution of Jainism in North America, Achievements and challenges -----	293-300
Can Jainism Survive in the 21 st Century -----	301-315
Jainism and Religious Tolerance-----	316-323
Jainism and Business Ethnics -----	324-331
Past and Present of a Jaina Festival-----	332-343
Practising Non-Violence through our Daily food-----	344-49
Transformation of Consciousness of a lay person-----	350-353
Appendix-A – Parliament of World's Religious, Chicago, 93 Contributions of Jains---	354-363
Goodwill Message from the Prime Minister of India
Goodwill Message from the then Prime Minister of U.K.
Statement	